ABOUT ROBBIE HARTE

Robbie Harte is a New York-based, Award-Winning International Country Music recording artist, originally from Montreal, Canada.

Known for her warm, rich vocals and emotional delivery, she has been described by fans as compelling, inspirational, and powerful.

Harte uses her inner strength and femininity to create music that connects and builds confidence in the listener. Her autobiographical stories often tell of overcoming adversity, turning her experiences into messages of hope that resonate with people everywhere.

As a young girl, Robbie always dreamed of being a professional singer. But that dream was put on hold fifteen years ago after a life-changing injury left her with chronic pain and also resulted in the loss of her ability to sing. Ultimately, however, it was music that helped her heal the most. She credits music for soothing her soul and giving her the strength and determination to push through, even during the most difficult of times. It was music that gave Robbie a voice, which she is determined to use to uplift and inspire others.

In 2017, Robbie was compelled to follow her dream to sing, no matter how difficult it may be. She was inspired and motivated by the desire to show her young daughter that a disability should never stop her from chasing her dreams.

Following an incredible journey over the past five years, Robbie Harte put a stamp on the country music scene with the release of her single '17' in 2020 after deciding to follow her dream of becoming a professional singer/songwriter. Since then, she has hit the number 1 spot numerous times.

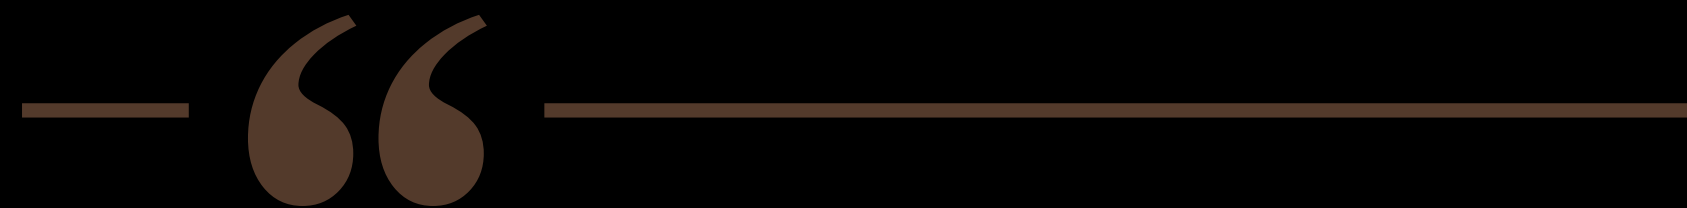

In 2022, Robbie was nominated for multiple Josie Music Awards and won two ISSA Awards. She was awarded the Gold Female Songwriter of the Year Award and the Bronze Single of the Year Award for her song "Outside My Window."

In 2023, she received three Josie Music Award nominations and five Who's Who Country Music Award nominations. In 2024, Robbie received multiple nominations for the Red Carpet Awards Show in Holland, as well as five Josie Music Award nominations, including "Rising Star - Country," and seven nominations for the Who's Hoo Country Music Awards.

Her latest single "Sawdust on the Floor" made it to the Top 10 charts in the US, UK, Australia, and Canada. In Canada, it landed on Billboard Canada's Top 25 Anglo Country chart and was among the top downloaded country songs on Yangaroo. Additionally, it was recognized as one of the Most Active Indies on Billboard Canada.

Robbie has performed live acoustic sets across New York, including The Bitter End, The Horizon Stage at Bethel Woods Center for the Arts (Woodstock), and at The Long Island Music and Entertainment Hall of Fame. She has also played in Nashville, Atlanta, London, UK, and her hometown of Montreal, Canada.

In addition to her Music Career, Robbie is a voiceover artist, and the Host of "Country Crops". Robbie Harte is a proud CMA, CCMA, and ISSA member and is a Breedlove Artist and Disability awareness and acceptance advocate.

"Robbie is a true testament to the healing power of music and the resilience of the human spirit." - Divine Magazine

"Her journey, marked by resilience and determination, serves as the backdrop for her emotive storytelling. With a voice described as warm and rich, Harte's delivery resonates deeply, weaving tales of triumph and vulnerability into her music" - Arizona Bay Music

"You have the power of positivity" - Jeff Rickett, KIX 96.5 FM Wyoming

ROBBIE HARTE - MUSIC

Robbie released her debut EP, "I of the Storm," in late 2020, a collection of empowering songs that have gained international airplay and inspired listeners worldwide.

I of the Storm, an empowering anthem about being fragile, yet unbreakable, underestimated, and misjudged, has become Robbie's theme song.

Out of the Blue, an upbeat song oozing summer vibes speaks to how trading Paris for Paradise, and taking a chance led to finding love out of the blue. You Don't Belong Here, her most vulnerable and powerful song to date, portrays Robbie confronting the demons of her past, declaring they no longer have a place in her life. This song was featured in ChildLife's Monthly Newsletter.

Home Is Wherever You Are, a beautifully heartfelt-delivered ballad speaks to challenges that people everywhere are facing during these precarious and unprecedented times - specifically, not being able to spend time and create new memories with friends and family...especially during the holidays.

17, is a nostalgic love song that looks at love's journey throughout the years. This was Robbie's breakout song that put her on the Country Music Map in 2020.

In September 2021, Robbie Released her single Outside My Window inspired by a young life cut short in her community and was released ahead of World Suicide Awareness and Prevention Day. It went on to win Bronze Single of the Year at the 2022 ISSA Awards.

Robbie is currently in studio working on new music, and plans to tour in the near future.

ROBBIE HARTE IN THE MEDIA

“Too Pretty To Be Home instantly conjures up images of times when, for whatever reason, you couldn’t go out and party. Feeling on top of the world and ready to go but instead just duetting with Garth Brooks on the stereo (with Trisha’s kind permission!) This instantly familiar and radio friendly hit will surely be a spring/summer anthem as you get your best dress on to make sure you are Too Pretty (or Handsome) to Be Home!" - Simon Birds, ARC Radio

“This song will hopefully make you feel inspired, empowered and ready to take on whatever the world has to throw at you as Robbie delivers an energetic, feel good song for the summer which will have you dancing from the start and adding to your playlists so you can dance all over again” - Amplify Music Magazine

“Last month, New York-based artist Robbie Harte’s latest single, Too Pretty To Be Home went largely under the radar. But it’s an instant toe-tapper, with a smooth, vintage summer sound. Layer upon layer of guitar anchors an Eagles-esque sonic backdrop, atop which Harte’s rich, enthralling vocal sits. You know when your plans are canceled, and now you’re all dolled up with nowhere to go? That’s what this song was made for. It’s upbeat and a little cheeky – it’s a ‘put on your best dress and go out dancing’ kind of song. It’s immediately fun and familiar; energetic and catchy with the perfect amount of summer spice. It’s upbeat – but with a mellow and lazy groove. It’s not too much of anything – in fact, it’s just right." - Three Chords Country

“It is a brilliant tune and deserves all the Airplay it can get!" -Chad J Country, Nashville Worldwide Radio

“One of the highlights of 2022 on Banks Radio Australia and Valley FM 89.5, this track provides a sublime wall of sound, amazing vocals, sensational track." - Issaac Banks Jr, Banks Radio Australia / Valley FM 89.5
